

HAPPENING IN YOUR CITY

AUBURN POLICE

We wanted to share some of the great work of an Auburn PD officer.

Officer Roberts responded to a suicide attempt in the city just before Christmas. Upon arriving he found the young lady unresponsive. Officer Roberts quick thinking, preparedness and training helped him save this young lady's life. Officer Roberts brought his personal med kit and was able to stabilize the young lady and radio for a med unit to transport her to the hospital. Thanks to Officer Roberts this young lady and her family were able to be together at Christmas.

Our officers face many challenges out there on a daily basis. Like Officer Roberts, they have the best training and knowledge to respond quickly to serve and protect the citizens of Auburn.

PUBLIC WORKS

Call 811 before you start any digging project. You can help avoid injury, expense, embarrassment, and a very inconvenient day without critical services like electricity, internet or phone.

I have received feedback from citizens about the newsletter, so over the next couple of issues you will see some changes.

We will have a section for each department to let the citizens know what each department is doing that will affect you. These topics will range from planned events to recognition of employees who have gone above and beyond in their duties for the City of Auburn.
