WAKE ME UP WHEN SEPTEMBER ENDS

September is the ninth month of the year in both the Gregorian and Julian calendars. It is the third of four months to have a length of 30 days. In the Northern Hemisphere, September marks the beginning of autumn. The weather starts to cool down, and the leaves begin to change color. September is also the start of the school year for many children in the Northern Hemisphere. Some of the notable holidays in September include: Labor Day (United States, Canada, and some other countries) Rosh Hashanah (Jewish New Year) Yom Kippur (Day of Atonement) September 11 (Patriot Day in the United States) Grandparents Day (United States) Constitution Day (United States)

September is also a time for many festivals and celebrations, such as the Oktoberfest in Munich, Germany, and the Harvest Moon Festival in many parts of the world. September 30th is also the Billie Joe Armstrong wakes up...
